

Forrest Hill Farm & Kaiser Forrest Hill

Presents a new and exciting educational event !

Adult Dressage Camp

June 23 -26, 2011

“Four days of intensive Instruction, Education & Fun”

This is one of the most informative educational programs we have ever offered.

The format is designed to be appropriate for both those who ride for sheer pleasure as well as those who aspire to improve their show ring performances.

It will include not only the customary semi-private mounted lessons but much more!

Evening lectures will discuss conformation, biomechanics, locomotion, farrier info etc. with plenty of opportunity for questions too. The Saturday night lecture will cover how to successfully warm-up and tips to improve show ring performance. The subject of this lecture is timed such to aid you to successfully prepare for Sunday's opportunity to ride a dressage test in front of a rated judge. All rides will be followed by an "after test critique", providing valuable feedback on how to improve future performances.

Participants will be able to customize their coaching according to their interests.

The instructors are very experienced and all strive to be clear, concise and appropriate for each individual camper's interests and experience level. You will find their teaching style is not only informative but low stress with emphasis on enjoying the experience.

Our goal is to combine education with a good time and we want all to come away from this camp remembering not only all they learned but also how much fun they had!!!

Please consider joining us and get ready to put some fire in your bellies!

Let us help you to become more confident and successful this year.

Adult Dressage Camp

June 23-26, 2011

Meet the Instructors

"Four days of intensive instruction & education"

Jennifer Kaiser is one of the few Midwest competitors earning the United States Dressage Federation Gold, Silver and Bronze Medals. Her achievements were all earned on horses she personally trained from juveniles up through Grand Prix. She has a student that she started as a youngster who also earned her USDF Gold medal in 2009 competing on a Forrest Hill bred horse her parents purchased when he was just at training level. Jennifer coached this pair bringing them from beginner on a green mount to a competent successful Grand Prix team. As of 2010 Jennifer had 2 students with their USDF Silver Medals, and 11 students who have earned USDF Bronze medals. Jennifer has ridden with many top trainers including Pan Am Gold Medalist, USET member Christopher Hickey and has also trained extensively with USET member, Michael Barisone and most recently Jane Hannigan, US representative at the FEI World Cup 2008. She annually attends &/or participates in USDF educational symposiums, conferences and clinics with top European & American trainers.

Gabriel Meyer, of Wellington FL and Millbrook, NY, has had over 18 years of experience training horses and riders. He started out at Forrest Hill Farm fresh out of high school, where he quickly became Assistant Young Horse Trainer and an instructor. He was responsible for training, showing, and the daily schooling of the farms young prospects, as well as instructing students at various levels. While at FHF, Gabriel earned his USDF Bronze medal with young horses he trained. Gabriel has trained with well respected dressage professionals, Hilda Gurney, Charles DeKunffy, Michael Barisone, Christopher Hickey, and for the past ten years 6x Canadian Olympic Team Member Cindy Ishoy. Gabriel's passion for dressage has taken him to Warendorf, Germany, Hagen, Germany and Doha, Qatar, where he immersed himself in the sport and furthered his riding/training education. He trains horses/riders in New York, New Jersey, Connecticut, Florida, Indiana, and the Bahamas. You will find him very personable and enthusiastic.

Danvers Child will present an evening lecture and will be doing live discussion regarding horse locomotion and bio-mechanics throughout the day while horses are working. This will be a great time to ask all your questions regarding hoof balance, shoeing, conformation, and anything else. Danvers is quite easy to talk to and presents information in a clear concise, & often humorous manner!
